Page 9 of 38; Replace the last (3) three sentences in Paragraph 9.7.2, which read:

(In the final phase, a VCX system will be installed at the Instructional Center as a replacement for the existing gateway system and Definity G3/R. Another VCX system should be redundant for the VCX system at the IC. The Instructional Center itself will be rolled out in phases, i.e. by department or building.) to read:
In the final phase, a VCX or NBX system will be installed at the Instructional Center as a replacement for the existing Definity G3/R, and, if a VCX is installed, for the NBX gateway. That NBX hardware can be repurposed as appropriate.
